	WW2	Working with the Care Act when under financial pressure Principal Social Workers have a key role within social care around promoting and maintaining quality care and support within their area - but how do you do that when resources are scarce? This session will launch guidance developed by the PSW network on this topic and aim to use the session to discuss with audience members the advice the guidance contains, and how to put it into practice. Our speakers include someone with lived expertise of caring and will speak about the impact of scarce social care resources on carers. Hannah Scaife , PSW South Gloucestershire Council and Co-chair of the PSW Adult Network Amy Hurst , PSW Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole Council and Co-chair of the South West Regional PSW Network Amanda Threlfall , a carer with lived experience. Chair: Lyn Romeo , former Chief Social Worker for Adults.
	WW3	In Their Own Words: Key messages on 5 priority areas for action from care experienced young people

		In this session, speakers share local and national asks on 5 topics that have been selected as priority areas for action for care leavers by the Young People's Benchmarking Forum: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Cost of Living 2) Safe and affordable accommodation 3) Access to health and mental health 4) Support post 21 and 25 5) Creating communities of support for care leavers The session will include a discussion which will focus on what action audience members can take in their roles. Victoria Odude - Young People's Benchmarking Forum Representative, NLCBF, Catch22 Rosia McCusker Harley Crolla Chair: Hannah McCowen, National Leaving Care Benchmarking Forum Manager, Catch22
	WW4	40% of victims of sexual offences are children: Closing the gap between the sexual abuse of children and the identification and protection response A significant gap remains between the number of children suffering sexual abuse and the much smaller number who receive a response from services. The CSA Centre is the only organisation collating multi-agency data to build a picture of identification and response to sexual abuse and understand the changing trends. In this collaborative workshop, they will share the Data Insights Hub, providing more ways to interrogate and understand local practice in the identification of and response to child sexual abuse. It empowers professionals and commissioners to ask better questions and, ultimately, make better decisions about how to help children and families. Ian Dean, Director, Centre of expertise on child sexual abuse Kairika Karsna, Principal Research and Evaluation Officer, Centre of expertise on child sexual abuse Lisa McCrindle, Assistant Director, Policy, Communications & Strategic Influence, Centre of expertise on child sexual abuse Chair: April Bald, Director of Operations Children's Care and Support, London Borough of Barking and Dagenham
	WW5	No recourse to public funds - meeting need in a challenging funding and policy environment This workshop provides leaders in Adult Social Care and Children's Services with an opportunity to consider how to safeguard the welfare and promote the well-being of families and adults with care needs who have no recourse to public funds when resources are scarce and immigration restrictions create destitution risks. The workshop will cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why a targeted response is necessary • Working with the Home Office to expedite case resolution through NRP Connect

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Best practice in service delivery • Achieving policy and funding change The workshop will include short presentations and space to reflect and discuss key practice questions. Henry St Clair Miller - Head of NRPF, Refugee and Migrant Services, Islington Council Catherine Houlcroft – Service Lead, NRPF Network, hosted by Islington Council Chair: Ian Swift - Director of Housing Operations and Deputy Corporate Director, Islington Council
	WW6	Improving transitions for carers from Children's to Adult Services This session will help attendees better understand how they can improve transitions for young carers and parent carers from Children's to Adult Services, and ensure compliance with their duties in this area under the Care Act and Children Act. The session will provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An overview of common challenges and barriers being faced by councils in relation to transitions • Insight into the experiences of carers during transition and practice examples from councils • Information on the resources available to help local authorities improve transitions • An extended forum for councils to share experiences/ideas and identify future support needs Andy McGowan - Policy and Practice Manager, Carers Trust Freya Gray - Young Adult Carer David Brooks - Young Carers Team Manager, Children, Young People and Learning Team, West Sussex County Council Chair: TBC

3.30 – 4.30pm	Workshop sessions
	WW7	Spotlight Having an IMPACT on waiting lists in the East Midlands: Coproducing change with people with lived experience and frontline professionals ASC waiting lists profoundly affect policy, practice and people. The health and wellbeing of people drawing on care and support deteriorates as needs remain unmet. Carers well-being is increasingly compromised, as is the sustainability of the caring role. Staff report stress and low morale as they balance demand against capacity. Through co-production with people with lived experience and frontline staff, IMPACT and EMADASS have developed guidance to enhance well-being and improve partnerships, systems and processes to address the impact of waiting lists. Project contributors share their experiences, the co-production process and the outcomes achieved to inspire improvement across social care. Raj Gill-Harrison - Chair of the project steering group - presenting people with lived experience perspective.

		Jon Wilson – Director of Adults and Communities – Leicestershire County Council. Sarah Morris – Principal Social Worker for Adults – North Northamptonshire Council. Chair: Lorraine Mighty – Senior Strategic Improvement Coach – IMPACT (Improving Adult Care Together).
	WW8	Mental Health - Future challenges and opportunities Mental health services in England received a record 5 million referrals during 2023 (up 33% from 2019), with the number of people in contact with mental health services steadily rising. Local authorities are key to delivering mental health care and support in the community. This session will look at how councils can build and maintain partnerships at a time when they are under increasing strain, build community resilience and address the sectors readiness for reform of the Mental Health Act and the move towards Community Mental Health. The session will also discuss how to achieve successful transitions between children and adult mental health services. Speakers tbc
	WW9	"Some love, man": Perspectives on Adult Safeguarding & Homelessness Centring human stories, this session will explore policy, practice and lived experience around adult safeguarding, homelessness and multiple disadvantage. With a commitment to social justice embedded throughout, the session will start with the stark picture painted by the 2nd National SAR Analysis, moving on to outline opportunities for radical safeguarding and integrated care and finishing with insights from lived experience to inspire hopefulness into action. The session will then invite the audience to reflect on and ask questions about the themes outlined by speakers. Professor Michael Preston-Shoot, Convenor of the National SAB Chairs Network Gill Taylor, ICS Inclusion Health Programme Lead - Pathway UK Khosru Miah, Community Member - The People's Recovery Project Chair: Melanie Williams, President - ADASS
	WW10	What works for children at risk of violence? An overview of evidence based interventions for children's services supporting children involved in, or at risk of violence This workshop will provide an overview of the Youth Endowment Fund (YEF) and its mission to reduce serious youth violence. It will introduce attendees to the YEF Toolkit, which summaries the evidence of what works to prevent serious youth violence. We will demonstrate how the Toolkit works and how it can support children's services to develop support packages for children at risk of violence. We will provide examples of where interventions have been successfully put into practice, and opportunity for debate and discussion on challenges of using evidence-based interventions and examples of success. Gail Gibbons - Head of Change - Children's Services & Health,

	WW11	Spotlight - Creating a parenting movement We will share our learning from creating a universal parenting service to improve outcomes for children and families, with a focus on early intervention. Exploring creative approaches to funding and shared values across Public Health, Children's Services and NHS services. We will explore how we have created a new service that builds community resilience, creates volunteer opportunities and starting to develop pathways to employment. We will share parents voices in how this approach has improved their parenting but also their perception of early help and statutory services and examples of success. Laura Devereux - Chair Early Intervention Service Manager, London Borough of Sutton Theresa Cameron - Parenting Co-ordinator London Borough of Sutton Keeley Carter Parenting Support Worker London Borough of Sutton Nyssa Smith - Parent Group Leader London Borough of Sutton
	WW12	Fosterlink – improving the recruitment of foster carers in your local authority Fosterlink is a DfE funded project working with 35 local authorities to help them identify areas for service and practice improvements in foster care recruitment and approvals. The project is delivered by Mott Macdonald in partnership with Coram and runs between January 2024 and April 2025. This session will explore the Fosterlink project, sharing key themes and lessons learnt and explore potential solutions and improvements. There will be an in-depth question and answer and a discussion about what else is needed to improve recruitment and approval of foster carers. At the end of the session attendees will be signposted to key resources from the programme that can be used in their local area, including a diagnostic tool to self-assess their own recruitment and approval practices. Kevin Yong – Coram-I and lead for the development of diagnostic tool Hannah Warwick – Mott Macdonald - Senior Associate / Professional Lead for Social Care Chair: Chris Senior – Fostering Lead, Department for Education

	TW13	Spotlight - Making direct payments a true vehicle for self directed support (TBC) The session will address the barriers to direct payments enabling people to control their own lives and support, and what can be done to overcome them. Speakers will share some guidance based on work done locally, the experience of a direct payments user, and an example where one local authority is putting it into practice, Speakers TBC
	TW14	The Prevention Paradigm - using innovation to shift from crisis response to the right support in the community for autistic people and people with a learning disability Against a backdrop of increasing need for care and support amongst autistic people and people with a learning disability, commissioning preventative services – which provide early support and can reduce the escalation of need – is now receiving greater attention in national policy. However, it can be hard to see how to achieve this when budgets are under continual pressure. This session aims to create positive energy and ideas for commissioners and practitioners considering their approaches to prevention, by highlighting positive examples of local authorities which have engaged with this issue, encouraging delegates to share their own examples and experiences. Simon Froud, Director of Adult Social Services, Telford and Wrekin Council Fazeela Hafejee, Assistant Director – Adults with Disabilities, City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council Tom Noon, Chair, Cordis Bright Representative from NHS England Individual with lived experience of autism and experience of benefitting from local services
	TW15	Supporting Children and Families Returning Home from Care NSPCC will look at how both National policy makers and local authorities can better support children and families returning home from care. They will cover the need for National direction on reunification and also showcase examples of effective tools that local authorities can draw on to help kickstart their reunification work, such as the NSPCC Practice Framework. Coventry reunification team will also present on how their

		journey for increasing support for families where reunification is possible has improved outcomes and also saved them money. Coventry's reunification team was set up in 2021 to provide better wrap around support for children and families where reunification is a viable option. Through intensive, and sometimes long term, support for families, the reunification team has increased the number of stable reunifications in the local authority and calculated cost avoidance of £2million per year. Matt Clayton Strategic Lead at Coventry Council Helen Gazola, Associate Head of Development and Impact at the NSPCC Michelle Maybury
	TW16	Spotlight Embedding a systematic local approach to Inclusive Practice across a local authority's schools and academies Within the context of increasingly complex needs and rising exclusions, we cover a town wide creative approach to reducing PEX and supporting local inclusion with appropriate resourcing and capacity building. This includes a major drive on reducing inequalities in provision and outcomes across the diverse nature of the town. Through the National SEND Reform, we explore how the Local Area Inclusion Plan has led to the development of a common understanding and co-created actions across partners so that all children feel they belong and increasing complexity of need is accommodated. The workshop input shows the step by step journey. It allows discussion on using the SEND Transformation proactively and applying learning to overcome challenges. Janice Altenor, Service Director for Quality & Improvements, Children Families & Education, Luton Borough Council Sarah Jackson. Headteacher of Surrey Street Primary School, Luton Caroline Dawes, Head of Standards and Effectiveness, Luton Borough Council Chair: Paul Wagstaff, Director of Education, Luton Borough Council
	TW17	Managing demand in adult and children's social care: Lessons from English local authorities. This interactive session will share innovation and good practice from English local authorities in managing rising demand for adult and children's services, building on CIPFA's publication featuring case studies covering market management, transitions, early intervention, and transformation. The first half of session will share headline findings; with DASS and DCS speaking about their featured case studies, good practice and innovation in demand management. The second half will open up to the audience to discuss opportunities, barriers, and solutions to demand management: one of the most pressing social care issues today. Applicable lessons will be drawn out for adult and children's leaders. William Burns, Social Care Policy Advisor, CIPFA

		John Pearce, Corporate Director Children and Young People, Durham County Council and ADCS Immediate President Bernie Enright, Executive Director Adult Social Services, Manchester City Council Chair: Vicky Davis, Director, Local Government Value for Money, National Audit Office
	TW18	Addressing workforce challenges across the whole social work profession As the regulator of all social workers in England, we understand that workforce challenges in children’s and families and adult social services need to be addressed collectively across the whole profession. Join leaders from Social Work England and our national workforce roundtable to discuss why social workers are leaving the profession, the impact of unhelpful public portrayals and the disparity of experiences across different ethnic groups. We will share our independent research campaign to inform and educate the public on the value of social work, successful recruitment and retention initiatives and the opportunities and obstacles to a whole sector approach. Natalie Day, Assistant Director of Policy and Strategy, Social Work England Gillian Ruch, Professor of Social Work Robert Lewis, Mental Health Social Work Lead, Office of the Chief Social Worker for Adults Chair: Sarah Blackmore, Executive Director of Professional Practice and External Engagement, Social Work England
